

I really love the Law of Attraction,
'cause that's where I get my main satisfaction.

I put my thoughts out there so I can see,
the Law of Attraction manifesting for me.

Whatever I ask for is always given,
and that's why I say, "This is my kind of living"

I free my mind from any detention,
I focus it now on my highest intention.

And when I do I must confess,
the Law of Attraction always says, YES.

I forget my struggles and release my worries now,
'cause the Law of Attraction always shows me how.

And when I get in that allowing attitude
my heart just bursts with joy and gratitude.

So I think it, I feel it, I get in the flow and the Law of Attraction makes it so.
