Her story is a powerful example possibilities. Not only is she deeply committed to her sport, Tessa is an ambassador for a host of good causes, including Right to Play, Walk For a Cure - Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation and Sick Kids Hospital in Toronto.

Native of Sudbury Ontario, Canada's Tessa Bonhomme is the recipient of many awards and carries a host of accomplishments including two-time captain of Ohio State University's Women's Ice Hockey Team.

Without a girl's hockey team in Tessa's area, her father Doug knew her vision could not materialize. His dedication to changing that fact was a major factor in the amazing sequence of events that followed for Tessa Bonhomme.

"I know that walking into Opening Ceremonies in BC Place was going to be a highlight of the Games, but to capture an Olympic Gold at Canada Hockey Place was just the ultimate and my game 7, like the Stanley Cup Finals," says Tessa Bonhomme.
